Science Portal for Ontario Teachers

Abstract

The Science Portal for Ontario Teachers is a portal that contains ready-made as well as customizable research-based teaching aids for upper-year high school science teachers to use in their classrooms. These resources will help students make smoother transitions to post-secondary education by addressing academic skills training in research, writing, and learning. Students will gain practice in locating, analyzing, and summarizing scientific research articles from academic journals.

Link

Access the Science Portal for Ontario Teachers