

Yorklands Green Hub (YGH): Highlights from the 2018 Community Needs Survey

A total of 131 participants responded to a survey that was given out at farmer's markets and through social media to learn more about the kinds of programs community members would enjoy.

Use of the Current Community Space

Of respondents were familiar with the community space at the proposed YGH site

Of respondents reported they had visited the area before

Location Accessibility

74 % of respondents drove to the space

41 % of respondents were not aware that the space was accessible by bus

Preferences and Activities

Respondents identified being interested in activities for adults and children (70%), as well as for adults only (25%).

Participants identified being interested in:

- Art and music classes
- Attending a farmer's market
- Engaging in nature appreciation events

For more information on YGH visit:
yorklandsgreenhub.ca

