First, please allow me to thank you for your commitment to animal health.

I have reproduced your request, following, in yellow highlighting.

I am in the process of submitting my graduate thesis including the manuscript for AJVR-18-12-0273 as a chapter. It has now been accepted. The thesis will be published in print and electronically and will clearly indicate that the material for one chapter is published within the AJVR.

The manuscript title is "Effects of intra-abdominal pressure on laparoscopic working space in domestic rabbits (Oryctolagus cuniculus)".

The name of my thesis is "Carbon Dioxide Pneumoperitoneum and Laparoscopic Ovariectomy in the Domestic Rabbit (Oryctolagus cuniculus)".

Please note that your article has been accepted for publication in the American Journal of Veterinary Research (AJVR).

Congratulations, and best regards,
