1. The Prioress Anna of the nunnery at Iona as depicted on her tombstone. From H.D. Graham, Antiquities of Iona (1850).
2. Eleanor, fourth daughter of James I. Original in the Kunsthistorisches Museum, Vienna.
4. Dame Jean or Jonet Scott, Lady Ferniehirst, shown as a widow in 1593. In the collection of the Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry KT.
5. Anna of Denmark, consort of James VI and I. Scottish National Portrait Gallery.
6. The family of Sir William Dick of Braid. In a private Scottish collection.
7. Washerwomen of Dundee, as depicted by John Slezer in 1678. From his Theatrum Scotiae. University of Guelph Library, Special Collections.
8A. Esther Inglis, calligrapher, printer and embroiderer of bookbindings. From Proceedings of the Society of Antiquaries of Scotland, December 1865.

8B. Title pages of Bibles printed by Agnes Campbell in 1707. From Dr. John Lee, Memorial for the Bible Societies in Scotland (1824).