

Poster Abstracts

J. Burpee

You and Your Library and Open Access

The University of Guelph Library supports the principles of Open Access and promotes alternative modes of scholarly communications to enable scholars to share the results of their research as widely as possible. This poster profiles how open access can support partnership and work in collaborations.