Carla Rice
Associate Professor
Uses research, media and community projects to challenge taken-for-granted, harmful attitudes about people with physical differences

Tricia van Rhijn
Assistant Professor
Works with mature university students to understand their needs; founded & moderates a social support network for student parents