

Macdonald Institute

Movement began around 1900 when Mrs. Hoodless met Sir William Macdonald.

Sir William provided the money to create Macdonald Institute and Macdonald Hall

Board of Governors

Students wanted to advocate for themselves and have a say in the university's major decisions. Created a stronger sense of community on campus

Massey Coffee Shop

Mac girls supplied coffee to the Aggie and Vet boys
1950 Murray MacGregor, the second year class president and Union Council president, rallied the other year presidents and major societies to push for student space

UC Referendum

Lyle Vanclief was the chairman of the student union building committee. Before, the students used to all come together in Drew Hall

War Memorial Hall

1914-1918

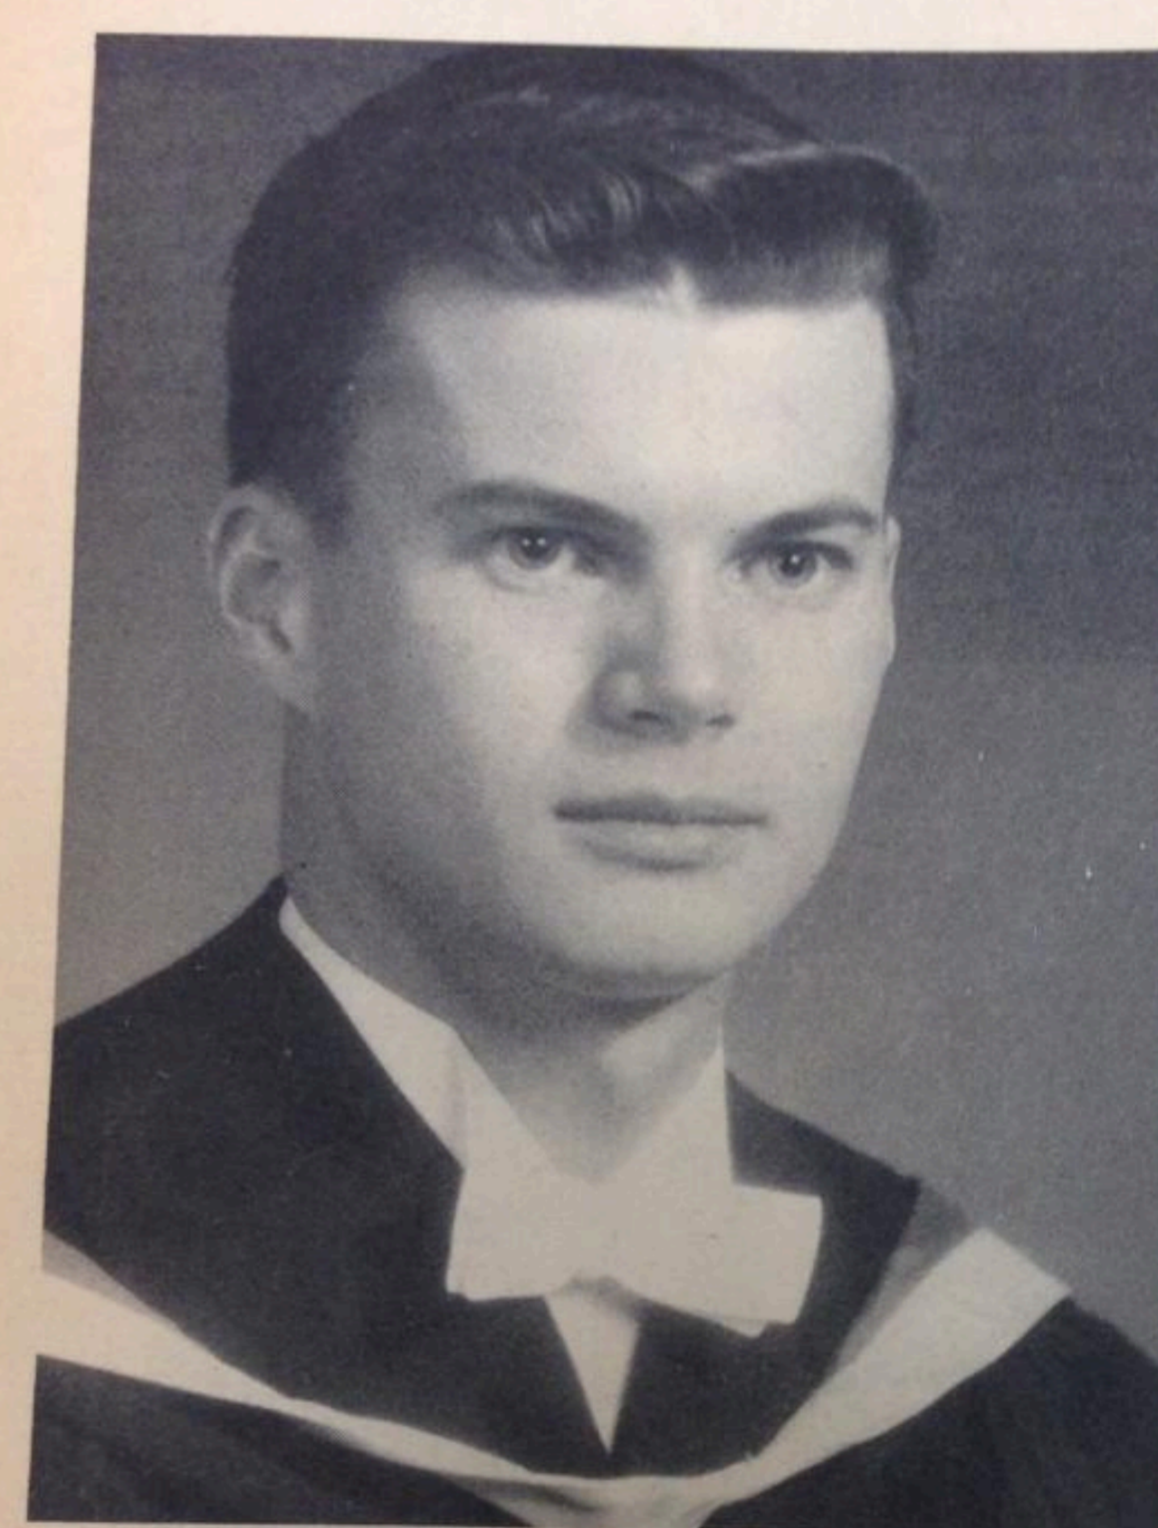

700 faculty, alumni & students enlisted

1919

Strike, 500 signatures on a student-run petition to get renovations.

The Silver Award is given to those individuals meritorious service to the student body.

Lyle Vanclief OAC - '66

Lyle Vanclief - '66 OAC.
Lyle proved more than capable in his job as president of Union Council this year. His regime saw the advent of the Student Union Building, a new Union Athletic Advisory Board and Finance Committee organization and Student-Professor ratings. These achievements will benefit the University of Guelph students for many years. Always interested in student government, Lyle was a member of OAC-SAC for his first three years. He held the office of vice-president on SAC last year as well as performing the job of Union Council Junior Insurance Representative with competence and success.
For the best Conversat ever -- Adeboden '65, Lyle was the General Manager. This job required a great deal of time, organization and drive. Lyle provided all three.
In first year, he was the energetic president of his year. He served on his year executive in second and third years.
In total, Lyle has made an outstanding contribution to this campus. In April, Lyle will drive his privileged yellow Mustang home to Belleville where he will take up farming full-time.

Student Petitions on Teaching 1880-1890's

John McCrae of Guelph, unsuccessful instructor. McCrae attained national awareness for the poem "In Flanders Fiends". Sense of community.

Students had shared values and beliefs, they were petitioning for their rights to a better education

Gay Rights

Oldest Queer Equality group in Canada 1973-Present

Homophilia was labeled as a bad thing, then people wrote in and said not to judge them.